

“One of my most enjoyable experiences was a river cruise I made with two of my brothers. We took a canvas folding boat up the Thames as far as we could get her to float. We got right up in the Chiltern Hills where no boat had ever been seen before. We carried our cooking kit, tent and bedding with us and camped out at night.”

Delmarva Council presents the ...

Chicamicomico Challenge

at

Henson Scout Reservation

The Challenge...

This canoe or kayak outbound adventure takes place on the pristine Chicamicomico Creek traversing southwest across Dorchester County toward Blackwater National Wildlife Refuge. Participants are sure to see eagles, white-tailed deer, turkey and many other indigenous wildlife species. This flat-water tidal creek twists and turns through marshlands and farm fields flowing toward Fishing Bay and finally the Nanticoke River, a feature river in the Nature Conservancy's Last Great Places program. Camping takes place in primitive campsites where wood fires are allowed. One popular campsite is actually on an uninhabited island accessible only by boat! This trip is recommended for boaters with a Swimmer classification and experienced campers only.

The Details...

Group size is limited to a minimum of 6 and maximum of 12 persons. Trips can be customized for one, two or three nights. Campsites are $25.00/night, Canoes or kayaks are $15.00/day, the trailering, maps and guide fee is $50.00 per trip. Transportation to the riverhead or reservation, and food are not included. Kayak groups are limited to 6 persons. Personal Floatation Devices and paddles are supplied with the boats. Participants are responsible for all other personal and camping gear. All Safety Afloat standards must be met and documentation carried on trip.
